- Manage project development lifecycle
- Training customers on authoring, collaboration and LMS tools
- Developing custom solutions with Adobe Captivate and Adobe Connect
- Providing technical support to sales efforts
- Event management and audio/video Production
- And 50 things we haven't thought of yet

What's Required:

- 100% Can Do Attitude
- The ability to say "I don't know, but I'll figure it out"
- Excellent written and oral communication skills (there will be a test)
- College Degree
- Local to Northern Virginia, DC Metro area
- Willingness to travel up to 50%
- 2-3 years corporate experience
- Adaptability

Skills (some of these would be nice, but don't worry we will train you):

- Adobe Connect
- Adobe Creative Suite
- Adobe eLearning Suite
- Microsoft Office
- Instructional Design
- Instructor Lead Training
- Consulting experience
- Sales Engineering experience
- ActionScript 3.0
- Java
- Adobe Flex and Flash

INTERESTED? WHAT'S NEXT: Yes we know it's a strange mix of job functions and skills. But that's what we're looking for—someone unique. If you think you're the one, submit your resume and some examples of your work. What kind of example? A snippet of code, a whitepaper, an elearning module, a virtual resume, flash application, a PowerPoint presentation, or some other representative deliverable we can expect from you. Knock our socks off.
